

1. What was the raven representing in Poe's poem?

2. Name three types of bells described in his poem, "The Bells."

"The Cask of Amontillado"

3. What put Montresor over the edge when he decided to seek revenge on Fortunato"?

4. Give two reasons why the carnival proved to be an excellent time to commit this crime?

5. How is this story similar to any of his other stories? Give one example.

"The Fall of the House of Usher"

6. Name three ways in which the house represents the Usher family.

7. Why did the narrator feel compelled to spend time at the estate?

8. What plagued this particular family?

"The Pit and the Pendulum"

9. Describe three of the tortures used on the narrator.